As a consequence the trophies and silverware mentioned in this schedule (other than those mentioned below) shall, once returned by the 2015 winning competitor, be held by MHFS and not be taken away after 'award' by the judge.

An opportunity will be given for the winning competitor to have photographs taken with MHFS silverware before they return it to the judge to be retained by MHFS.

The retention of MHFS silverware does not apply to the following:

- Winners sash and / or rosette given in a class. These are to be kept by the recipient
- Shire Horse Society Silver Spoon. This is to be kept by the recipient.
- Alternative trophies presented in lieu of MHFS silverware. These are to be kept by the recipient.

Any winning competitor not returning MHFS silverware on show day (i.e., they have taken it home) will be required to return the silverware to the Show Secretary, at their own expense, via suitable and adequately insured post.
